A PICTURE STORY OF THE GREAT PEACE CONFERENCE

WHERE THE AMERICAN DELEGATES ARE RESIDING

The handsome Hotel Crillon on the Place de la Concorde, Paris, where the American delegates to the peace congress are housed.

AMERICA'S DELEGATES TO THE PEACE CONGRESS

WHERE THE WORLD PEACE TREATY WILL BE SIGNED

In this beautiful palace of Versailles, just outside of Paris, the treaty that is expected to bring peace to all the world will be signed.

VERSAILLES PALACE FROM THE ORANGERY

A view of the palace of Versailles, taken from the orangery. This is where the formal sessions of the peace conference will be held and the treaty signed.

HALL OF MIRRORS, VERSAILLES

This beautiful reception room of Louis Philippe is in the Grand Trianon, which is a part of the palace of Versailles. It is used as a reception room by the delegates to the peace conference.

JULES CAMBON

Jules Cambon is considered an especially reliable member of the French peace delegation, as he was also French ambassador to both America and Germany. His appointment was especially pleasing to the American delegation.

GEORGES CLEMENCEAU

Georges Clemenceau, premier of the French republic, is the president of the peace congress, having been chosen for that place not only in compensation for his great ability, but also in recognition of his great ability. Long known as the "Tiger," Mr. Clemenceau has always been a sturdy fighter for democracy.

The magnificence of the palace of Versailles, where the peace treaty will be signed, may be judged from this view of the Hall of Mirrors.

Great Objective—A League of Nations—Will Insure World Peace in Future

Plan for a league of nations for arbitration and dispute settlement:

"Second.—To prevent or suppress international aggression, representative council jointly by the use of all means at their disposal may attempt by any of international law and take action in matters of general concern by acts of war.

"Third.—To establish an international court of justice charged with the duty of deciding all justifiable disputes and to insure the execution of its decisions by all appropriate international sanctions—diplomatic, juridical, economic and, if necessary, military."

"Fourth.—(1)—To establish an international representative council which will provide for the development of international covenants necessary for the protection and progress of these powers.

"(2)—The representative council will watch over the freedom of navigation and the maintenance of international order."

"(3)—Considering itself responsible for the moral guardianship of all civilized races, the representative council will secure the execution and ing all such inquiries as it considers useful, and will determine the necessary limits of time and conditions, in every and any state refusing to obey the award of the arbitrator or the decision of the committee, the application of appropriate sanctions will be proposed to the representative council and the associated governments by the committee. The sanctions shall be obligatory in the case of violence or aggression.

"(4)—A permanent committee of arbitration shall take in hand all differences between the associated nations. The committee will act, in the first instance, as conciliator or mediator, and, if necessary it will refer the dispute to arbitration or to a court of inquiry according to their nature. It will be charged with making all arrangements for the conduct of the arbitration, and shall have the power to make regulations for the same.

"(5)—To limit and supervise the armament of each nation and the manufacture of all naval and aerial vessels of war, having regard to the requirements of the League.

"Sixth.—To regulate the making of secret treaties."

"Seventh.—To regulate the conduct of war, all laws, rules and regulations being effective during the duration of the war."

"Concluded on back page."

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce the following candidates, subject to the action of the Democratic primary election August 2, 1919:

For Representative
OTE PIFER
(Re-election)

A record price for mules was brought on the Mayfield market Friday. Jack Sharp purchased a pair of exceptionally good long-eared unies from J. W. Grimes for $225.

Democrats want no better assurance of success in 1920 than for a few Republican Senators to continue the game of penit politics they have been playing in Washington for two months past.

A soft blue-white diamond weighing 388 carats has been found at the Jagersfontein mine, Orange River Colony. This promises to be one of the diamond fields' historic gems.

Any employer who gloried in a service flag and yet declines to give the competent returned soldier employee his old place back, is a traitor to the ideals of this nation, and should be published and boycotted.

Judge B. T. Davis tells us that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for Circuit Judge; adding that he hopes Judge Gardner may be induced to reconsider and again be a candidate for the place.

The casualty list of last week carried the name of Will Jackson, Hickman, Ky., as "severely wounded." As a matter of fact young Jackson has been home for several weeks, fully recovered from the wound, which he received last September. Evidently, the daily casualty reports are months old.

As an index to the enhancement of land values in this section, the old Vick Kelly place in the "upper bottoms" serves as a good example. Eighteen years ago Mr. Kelly bought this tract of 188 acres for $700. A few weeks ago he sold it to F. M. Chambers and others for $14,000. In the meantime the farm products from the place made a substantial showing on the credit side of the ledger and was a paying investment on the last sale price. There are many other notable examples of increased values, but this is one we happen to have all the facts at hand.

DOCTOR URGED AN OPERATION

Instead I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Was Cured.

Baltimore, Md.—"Nearly four years I suffered from organic trouble, nervousness and headaches and every month would have to stay in bed most of the time. Treatments would relieve me for a time but my doctor was always urging me to have an operation. My sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before consenting to an operation. I took five bottles of it and it has completely cured me and my work is a pleasure. I tell all my friends who have any trouble of this kind what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—NELLIE B. BRITTINGHAM, 609 Calverton Rd., Baltimore, Md.

It is only natural for any woman to dread the thought of an operation. So many women have been restored to health by this famous remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, after an operation has been advised that it will pay any woman who suffers from such ailments to consider trying it before submitting to such a trying ordeal.

BACK TO LIFE.

Tom C. Butler, Reported Killed in France, Arrives Home.

To be officially notified by the War Department of the death of one's son and mourn him as lost, then to have him walk in home looking fine, vigorous and without any previous notice is an experience that plays on one's feelings to a degree beyond description. But such was the experience of J. C. Butler, late of this county, last Thursday, when his son, Thos. C. Butler arrived home.

Mr. Butler had received notice that his son was killed in action in France on Sept. 24. Being an official notice, he naturally resigned himself to the sorrow of the loss of his boy. When Tom walked in home last Thursday—unannounced—unexpected, it was like one coming back from the "land from whence no bairne nor traveler ever returns." Joy, rapture, thanksgiving! all of these are meaningless compared to the happiness experienced by that father.

FAVORS LOW PRICES.

Courier-Journal Says Corn Should be Profitable at $1.15.

Commenting on corn in the Courier last week, relative to local corn prices, the Louisville Courier-Journal prints the following editorial:

"The Hickman Courier says: Western Kentucky corn growers are disgruntled because corn is selling for only $1.15 a bushel as against $1.80 last January, and $2.10 now in February. It is stated that an index of Argentine corn is the cause of the slump.

"Corn is profiting at $1.15 when it is grown upon land that is naturally fertile and has been kept in good condition to grow corn. It used to be said that the labor of breaking and "working down" corn land, plowing and cultivating the crop, cutting stalks and cribbing the corn was about $12 an acre. If the figures were correct the cost of production probably was $25 an acre last year. If that was the case there was a loss in producing thirty bushels of corn to the acre. If the corn be as sold at $1.15 and all low-grade seeds for the capital invested in the corn land the upkeep of fence and other factors in production overlooked usually by the public and overlooked often by the farmer. But where forty, fifty, sixty or seventy bushels were produced upon an acre there was a comfortable margin of profit."

Innnumerous Kentucky farmers are producing thirty bushels of corn on overworked land which would produce twice as much if it were rightly treated. That perhaps rarely is the case in the vicinity of Hickman, but over river bottom lands are not quite as nearly inexhaustible as they seemed to be when floods brought more silt sediment far their removal than is brought nowadays, the forests having to a great extent been cut from the areas subject to overflow, or contributing their "run-off" to the Ohio.

The consumer will be glad to see Argentine corn, or any other factor, reduce the price of corn. The farmer's opportunity for a continuing profit upon corn production, no matter whether the corn is sold or fed, lies in improving his land and getting from it two bushels where it will yield only one if neglected. Farm labor never will be as cheap as it was five years ago. In the circumstances it will be necessary to do better farming than that which made ends meet when corn and labor were lower than they are today."

BACK TO NASHVILLE.

After residing at Hickman for the past twelve years, Dr. R. H. Rogers, formerly County Veterinarian, and family will leave this week for Nashville, Tenn., to make their future home. Dr. Rogers has accepted a place as salesman with a leading automobile agency of that city. He says he is to furnish the gas and the company the capital—two essential elements in the automobile business. In going to Nashville, the family is returning to its former home, and "Doc" has many friends here who wish him success in his new venture.

DIDN'T SEE SHADOW.

According to Groundhog Theory We Will Have Early Spring.

Sunday was the first day in weeks that we have had sunshine in this section. I say this was Ground Hog or Candlemas Day—and, according to tradition, if the little fellow emerged from winter quarters, he failed to see his shadow which is a harbinger of early spring.

This superstition has grown in popularity to an extent that some calendar nearly the day. On this subject, a noted authority in astronomy says: "This little ground hog is so clever that it builds its burrow always on a sloping hillside so that when it first sees it, it does upward. This is to avoid being washed away by rains or flowing snow. Its burrow contains several chambers, into which it drags dry grass, so that it may hibernate safe and warm till the winter is over."

People may do these traditions, and no one can mathematically prove that they are true, but they are of great value. We don't know how the groundhog got to know just when Feb. 2 arrives in the calendar, but believe it does.

"The observation of the whole human race appears again in that old rhyme:

"Evening red and morning gray Spends the traveler on his way Evening gray and morning red Brings down rain upon his head."

There is a great deal of wisdom in that verse.

A good many people are asking me about the cold winter and whether it will come now and then that the seasons are changing. This is not true. We have several mild winters but that does not prove that the seasons are changing. The way of it is this: We have a possibility of such winters. In 1845 we had a winter just like this one.

Some people think that we may have a dry winter after such a winter. If we have a mild winter, a mild winter is likely to follow it, so as to even up the temperature. You may expect up in that the average temperature of the whole year will vary little. The family of Mr. Engelhardt, the tourist, kept a record of the temperature for 100 years, and they find that the change never changed as much as 2 degrees.

COMEDIANS FARE BADLY.

The Sunset Comedy Co., which filled the stage hall at the American Theatre Tuesday night, fared badly at the hands of their patrons when the performance which they gave failed to meet the expectations of the crowd.

Their program was so far below the usual standard of the local theatres that T. C. Lash, manager, ordered the curtain rung down before the rendition was more than half completed, and the members of the troupe, enroute to their hotel, were followed by a crowd of over one-hundred persons, who were well armed with stale "feathers" which they distributed impartially among the actors.—Charleston Courier.

REV RENNENBERG HONORED.

At the 51st Annual Council of the Diocese of Kentucky, held at Louisville Jan. 27-29, the Rev. W. F. Rennenberg, Rector of St. Paul's Church, at Hickman, was elected Assistant Secretary of the Diocese. His selection to this important position is especially complimentary to our young friend who merits most honor the Diocesan confr.

On the same occasion the Rev. J. B. Robinson, Rector at Fulton, was elected to the responsible (and probably laborious) office of Historiographer of the Diocese, but Rev. Robinson is equal to the task.

MORRIS—CLARK.

O. E. Morris and Miss Lucy Clark were quietly married Saturday evening by Rev. S. A. McDade at his home in Fulton.

Mr. Morris was born and reared near Fulton and is a highly respected young man. He is at present connected with the automobile factories in Detroit, Mich.

Deputy Jailer Henry Taylor, at Murray, was assaulted and overpowered at supper time last Wednesday by three negroes who obtained his revolver and keys, locked him in a cell and made their escape. The negroes were led by Charley Wall, held on a charge of robbing a jewelry store. His lieutenant was Edwin Gutchie, a bootlegger. The third negro was named Caldwell. A fourth negro was compelled to accompany the trio, the jailer's revolver being used by Wall to urge him along. Later he was turned loose and returned to the jail.

Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Hickman resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

TO EXPRESS OUR GRATITUDE.

During the recent illness and death of our beloved father, J. J. C. Boudrant, our many neighbors and friends have been so exceedingly kind and thoughtful that we find ourselves unable to adequately express our deep feelings of gratitude. Words seem so weak when we try to say to those whose hands and hearts have helped us in days and nights of watching and sorrow, that we are thankful for such friends and appreciate their sympathy and helpfulness. We will try to show the same kindness to others and thus prove our gratitude.—The Family.

Chairman Nafieh Reports Relief Fund as Fully Subscribed.

S. M. Nafieh, Fulton County Chairman of the Near East Relief Fund campaign, says the county's quota of $1908 has been fully subscribed and that we are "over the top" in both ends of the county. Something over $850 has already been paid in and a large number of pledges are yet to be collected.

On this magnificent charitable undertaking depend the lives of over 4,000,000 in Asia Minor. The tired arms which stretch out in mute appeal to American citizenship shall not be in vain. Your dollars have helped to snatch from death the little children of that country little ones whose forms are withered with starvation and whose cry for bread is solved with weakness.

FIRE CHIEF RESIGNS

"Unable to Collect Salary" Given as Reason for Quitting.

B. W. Posey, Hickman's fire chief and city jailer, tendered his resignation at the regular monthly meeting of the city fathers last Monday night. His reasons for stepping down and out are set forth in the following written notice:

"Owing to the fact that I am unable to collect my salary and to the fact that I am in circumstances that I must have my salary to live, I am forced to tender my resignation as Fire Chief and City Jailor of the City of Hickman, Ky., same to take effect the first of March, if not sooner. I appreciate what the members of the Council have done for me while in the employ of the city, but my circumstances will not permit me to live unless I am able to collect at once for the services which I render."

The resignation has been accepted, we are sorry to say. The board may get another man as good, but none better than Ben Posey. His services have been eminently satisfactory all these years.

It is also a sham on the city that it must lose the services of a competent, reliable, trustworthy man because it fails to pay him.

TWO TO PEN.

Ollis Newton and John Shanks Taken to Eddyville this Week.

County Jailer F. A. Murchison went to Eddyville Tuesday taking two prisoners from this county to the branch penitentiary, where both are sentenced to serve a year. They are:

Otis Newton, of Hickman, convicted of feloniously violating the local option law. Being his second offense on this charge he was given a year and a day.

John Shanks, of Fulton, was found guilty of grand larceny—stealing an automobile in this county and carrying it to Corinth, Miss., where he was caught and the car found.

Mother's Cook Book

Ah, what would the world be to us if the children were no more? We would dread the desert behind us, worse than the dark before.

What to Feed the Child.

For a normal baby, with a normal mother, the first few months or a year there is nothing better to do than feed it with nature's food, mother's milk. Orange juice and water for refreshment will cool the swollen gums and give great relief when teething.

If the child has taken prune juice, unsweetened, and orange juice occasionally the digestive tract will be in good working order. Then in the second year scraped apple or other fruits like pears and peaches if well ripened, may be safely given in very small quantities. A drink of cool water should be given frequently. How many worrying babies, who cannot tell what they want would be made comfortable by frequent drinks of pure cool water.

All changes in a child's diet should be made very carefully and when any new food is introduced give it in small quantities, a teaspoonful or two being sufficient.

Baked potato is a food particularly adapted for a young child's food. Use a little milk with a grain or two of salt, then cream and butter may be added. After a child has become accustomed to potato a teaspoonful of finely mashed peas may be given, as well as carrot, spinach and any vegetable not too woody.

Given to the child in small quantities, well mashed and seasoned, he will learn to like all kinds of vegetables; in fact he will never need to learn, for the good habit will be formed early in life.

A child's digestion is so much more rapid than an adult's that they need to be fed oftener and in small quantities.

A child fifteen months old will need some such diet as to food and time as the following: At seven or eight a breakfast cereal, bread or toast and a cupful of milk; at noon an egg, potato, one other vegetable, bread and fruit, either juice or scraped fruit. Five or six, milks and rice or bread, and at ten a cupful or bottle of milk. The cereals should be varied so that they may become accustomed to like a variety.

The chief thing to remember in cooking cereals for children is to cook them long enough. Serve with good top milk and no sugar. In early youth the child gets all the sugar he needs from the fruit he eats. One good reason for having little people eat alone is that foods that must be denied them are not put temptingly before them.

Latest Vending Machine Is Detector of Spurious Coin

One of the interesting developments in the vending machine field is a large apparatus that dispenses bottled beverages, sandwiches and chewing gum. In order to encourage patrons to return empty bottles to the machine, a stick of gum is discharged when a bottle is placed in the receiver provided for it. A counterfeit detector rejects spurious coins. A complete record of all transactions is kept by a sales registering mechanism. The only attention the machine requires is that involved in stocking and letting it daily.

DEDICATED.

Christian Church Formally Dedicated and Cleared of Debt.

The little heroic band of workers of the Christian church saw their dream of years happily consummated Sunday, when its magnificent new church building, costing close to $20,000, was formally dedicated and all outstanding indebtedness wiped out. We say "little band" because compared with the undertaking it was but a determined, persistent, go-forward lot. When the keys to the new edifice were delivered to Eld. Miley as the last number of the day's program it might well be said "The end of a perfect day." To own such a beautiful building and splendid equipment is something to be proud of; to know that it is paid for on the day of its dedication is unusual and must be a source of great satisfaction; to entertain great throngs of friends with an inspiring, elevating program and to serve them with a splendid dinner—500 or more—in the commodious church dining room, is enough to make Feb. 2, 1919, a red letter day on the local Christian church calendar.

As a matter of fact, $10,000 of the church fund had been pledged several months ago, and the task confronting the congregation was the raising of $12,500, an amount calculated to meet the debt and take care of interest. When the invitation was given, for contributions, it was met with a hearty response and at the finish instead of $12,500 it was found that $15,150 had been subscribed, more than was needed to wipe out all outstanding indebtedness and obligations. The surplus has been placed in a fund for the building of a parsonage, which is needed.

The dinner. This is too important to be overlooked. The good ladies of the church simply put the finishing touches to that part of the program which was rendered in the church basement dining room. Enough had been prepared for twice the number present, the menu including boiled country ham, potato salad, potato chips, pickles, gravy, cake, coffee, etc. The ladies' "quoto" was a good dinner for every one present—and they went away "over the top."

For lack of time, special mention of the various numbers of the program cannot be made, although richly deserved. The program rendered was as follows:

WRITES FROM GERMANY.

Jillian Geens, a Fulton county soldier boy, writes his mother, Mrs. Etta Nulling, from Eschelbeck, Germany, under date of Dec. 24, as follows:

"Dear Mother: Well, another Christmas is here and I am in Germany. I was in St. Annand, France last Christmas. I never saw the trenches until March, but we drilled all last winter. I could not write you, but we landed in Brest, France the 15th of November. We had a fine trip but I was seasick several days on the way over and was glad to see land. For ten days we could see no land at all. We had a hard time this summer but we did not mind that just so we won. The air raids at night were what I dreaded most. I made several close escapes. I am glad to get out alive. I received my box and it was fine. When I wrote you I was in Paris. I was on my way to the front. Was in the Contingent Battle. Then we came through Paris on our way to the Solsson Drive in July. Our division never did retreat. All were killed or wounded in my company but 12 in the battle near the woods you read about.

"It was for you I fought for life. It will not be many months before I will come back. I have seen quite a lot of the world and would not take anything for what I have seen. We are in the houses with the people and they sure treat me nice, too. I crossed the Rhine the 13th of December. I am well fixed for the winter, have good warm clothes and hip boots. I am sending some cards of places I have been in Coblenz. I was through the Castle and on top of the tower. We are going to have pork for dinner for a change. Well, as it is about time for dinner, I will close."

If you need anything from any of the stores that do not deliver, remember that our car will be coming your way and we will be glad to bring it up for you.—Boudrant Bros.

1-2-3-4 Features that Insure FUEL SAVING

Note them carefully, and see if they are offered in any other range than Allen's Princess, the famous economy kitchen range.

1. PATENTED BLAST FIRE BOX. Allen's patented fire box is so constructed that it promotes the free combustion which thoroughly consumes smoke and gases, and makes fuel do nearly twice as much work as ever.
2. FUEL SAVING RESERVOIR. Allen's direct heating reservoir makes it possible for fuel to do two jobs at once—to heat the water and to heat the range.
3. AIR-FACE RANGE. The top and side of Allen's Princess is made in one piece. There are no cracks at the joints to admit cold air to the fire box and flues.
4. ASBESTOS OVERCOAT. Allen's Princess is wrapped in asbestos and steel at every point which retains the heat the best like an overcoat. This gives maximum efficiency from fuel, because it retains in the range all the heat.

The country is being deluged by fake income tax experts, according to warning sent out by the revenue department. These "experts" canvass business houses and individuals and offer to use their magic wand to relieve the people of all worry in connection with the income tax. An investigation, says the internal revenue department, will disclose the fact that very few have had the training that would place them near the expert class. Some of them were formerly temporarily employed by the government and others have taken a long distance course by means of printed instructions. All citizens should beware of these persons and in the event they need advice, apply to authoritative sources.

All signs point to an abundant apple crop for the present year, according to our reliable friend Isaac Shum, who is one of the leading果农 of Western Kentucky. He tells us that buds on the trees have broken and there is little likelihood of winter interference. Peaches and some other fruits, however, cannot be judged this early in the season.

CALOMEL DYNAMITES A SLUGGISH LIVER

Crashes into sour bile making you sick and you lose a day's work.

Calomel salivates! It's mercury. Calomel acts like dynamite on a sluggish liver. When calomel comes into contact with sour bile it crashes into it, causing cramping and nausea. If you feel bilious, headache, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great, full of ambition and ready for work or play. It's harmless, pleasant and safe to give to children: they like it.

Notice to Breeders: I have a Reg. Holstein bull that will make the season at my farm $\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of Hickman. Terms: \$2.50 cash with service.—Chris Ledwidge. 2-20.

Last year winter was about over by this time. This year it has hardly begun.

LEMON JUICE IS FRECKLE REMOVER

Girls! Make this cheap beauty lotion to clear and whiten your skin.

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.
